Independent Designer
Partner & Partners, New York, NY
(Jun 2024 – Present)

Design, development and research on interactive, editorial, publishing, identity, and exhibition projects. Clients include Hell Gate, Phenomenal World, the AI Now Institute, and CUNY's Center for the Humanities.

Editor-in-Chief (previously News Editor)
New School Free Press (NSFP)
(Dec 2023 – May 2025)

Led a newsroom of between 70 – 113 editors and staff at The New School's only independent student paper.

- * Oversaw regular newsroom operations, alongside providing feedback on pitches, editing, and reporting stories as needed, producing some of the paper's most-read articles of all time. Coverage included stories on pro-Palestine encampments, student visa revocations, Title IX investigations, and misuse of funds by the university student senate.
- * Broadened content formats by growing video and web development teams, and designing copy flows for photojournalism and data stories.
- * Developed staff trainings on copyright and fair use, and expanded the NSFP Code of Ethics.
- * Served on the inaugural NSFP Managing Board, helping develop an official constitution, and policies governing the board's relationship with the newsroom and hiring of future editors-in-chief.

Design Lab Technician
Parsons School of Design, The New School
(Aug 2023 – May 2025)

- * Assisted students in file set-up and printing and provided equipment orientations on inkjet, laser, risograph, large-format plotter printers, and a range of industrial bookbinding machines at the busiest student lab at The New School.
- * Looked after equipment, including troubleshooting, changing parts, resolving jams, and fixing driver issues.
